From the beginning of the year, it has been the priority of the government to lessen criminality and instill peace in our country. They believe that with a safe and peaceful country, progress can easily be attained. To clear the path towards national progress, its path should be kept peaceful and secured. Thus, the administration made it their priority to address the root cause of internal conflict, upholding the sovereignty and territorial integrity of the state, modernize the defense sector, and build resiliency against natural and man-made calamities and disaster.
